Water Ball Speaker

Sound Limited

The advertisement features a large, glowing green water ball speaker on the right, with a white base and a black band. The ball is filled with water and contains a small, illuminated figure that appears to be dancing. The background is a deep blue with white water splashes and musical notes. In the center, there is a product box for the 'Water Ball Speaker' with the same design. To the left of the box, there are five icons representing different features: a battery, Bluetooth, a USB symbol, a speaker, and a musical note. Below these icons are the labels: 'Built-in Battery', 'Bluetooth', 'Plug & Play', 'Built-in AMPLIFIER', and 'Hi-Fi Stereo'. The text 'ITEM NO: B012-1401', 'PKG: 1PC/COLOR BOX', '6PC/INNER BOX', and '12 PCS/CTN/ 1.47'' is displayed in a stylized font. The phrase 'The water dancer' is written in a cursive, pink font with a yellow outline. The number '1406' is in the top right corner. The product box also shows the 'Water Ball Speaker' name and a small image of the speaker.
